Dear H-B Comic News:

I love your H-B comics! They're great! My favorite characters are Scooby-Doo and The Jetsons. I'm so glad that you had A Pup Named Scooby-Doo in his own book. I have a dog named Scooby but he's very different. My Scooby is a small beagle and is a girl.

Peter Placyk, Runnemede, NJ

(Peter, Scooby-Doo absolutely beamed when we told him about your naming your pup Scooby. "R'm rilled" were, in fact, his exact words. By the way, look for a very special Scooby adventure in the near future when Scooby-Doo meets the crew from Gilligan's Island!)

Dear H-B Comic News:

I think that Scooby-Doo comics are the best. Will Scrappy-Doo be in every issue? Is Scooby's dumb cousin going to be in any? Are Scooby's parents going to be in any? Does Scooby have brothers or sisters or aunts and uncles or grandparents who will be in the comics? Will Scooby-Doo retire and get married? Will anybody quit the gang? Will there be any new people in the gang? Will anything happen to people in the group? Will you come out with a game with Scooby and his friends where you have to solve the mystery?

Karyn Orrico, Greenwich, CT

(Karyn, no, yes, maybe, yes, who knows, perhaps or perhaps not, who can say, yes, possibly ... and thanks.)

Dear H-B News:

I would like to comment on Scooby-Doo #10. It had great art and a mystery I couldn't solve. I have a few suggestions. How about if Scooby meets Astro from The Jetsons? And how about some double or giant-sized issues of Scooby-Doo?

Ryan Jacobson, Deerfield, IL

(Ryan, thanks for the kind words and wait'll you see the next issue of Scooby! The idea of meeting Astro sounds good if you can figure out a way to make a time machine. Maybe we ought to make a giant-sized issue of Scooby. What do the rest of you think?)

Dear H-B Comic News:

I read your Scooby-Doo comic and it's cool ... way hip! So will you put The Impossibles in their own ongoing monthly series? Thank you.

Willie Vineyard, Poteau, OK

(Willie, look for H-B Presents #8 featuring Frankenstein Jr. and The Impossibles. Who knows, if it sells off the shelves as we hope, there could be a regular ongoing book in the offing.)
